Life On a Lie

Until the End

Out your faith in nothing
And get nothing in return
Defend your sins to the weak
And gets nothing in return
I've wasted my whole life on a lieI waste my whole fucking life on a lieI've given myself, the final decision
I've charged myself
With a hate filled life
Theres no use in fighting
For a whole world of sin
This false revolution has
Killed my dreams
Killed my hope
Forced my hand
Killed my dreamsIf we start living for ourselves
And stop giving in to our guilt
Maybe we will have one last chance
To start over and get it right
