Just In Time

Restless Heart

Such a sad story, broken down and lonely
Broken down to my last dime
No one I could turn to, no where left to run to
I was almost out of time
You were the only one that ever caught my eye
You reached out and took my hand and suddenly I came alive
Oh, girl you found me just in time
And I still can't believe you're mine
Don't care that I'm a bit delirious
I swear I'm gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl you found me just in time
It's only fare to warn you, I'm so crazy for you
Think I'm gonna loose control
'Cause every time you're with me, something in me breaks free
Makes me want to rock and roll
Don't you know I will never ever let you get away
Now that we are together I intend to find a way to make you stay
Oh, girl you found me just in time
And I still can't believe you're mine
Don't care that I'm a bit delirious
I swear I'm gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl you found me just in time
Imagine a world where there is never any pain
That's what you are for me
You give me what I'm looking for
You're all I want and so much more
Oh, girl you found me just in time
And I still can't believe you're mine
Don't care that I'm a bit delirious
I swear I'm gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl you found me just in time
Who care if I'm a bit deciduous?
I know we're gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl you found me just in time
Oh, girl you found me just in time
