Don't Wanna Go Home

Jimmy Nail

Here he come again that man in the mask
Telling me I have to go home
Telling me I have to go home againPointing with his finger and waving that lamp
Telling me I have to go home
Telling me I have to go home againI don't wanna go home
Don't wanna go home no more
I don't wanna go home
Don't wanna go home no moreJust when I get to thinking that I've shaken him free
Just when I get to thinking that he's gone from me
He seems to have a hold upon my soulHere he come again that man in the mask
Telling me I have to go home
Telling me I have to go home againI don't wanna go home
Don't wanna go home no more
I don't wanna go home
Don't wanna go home no moreBecause I've been a lot of places that I shouldn't have been Seen a lot of faces that I shouldn't have seen
Said a lot of bad things that I really didn't mean
But they still won't let me goI don't wanna go home
Don't wanna go home no more
I don't wanna go home
Don't wanna go home no more
