Verse 1:
There's an invisible line
On the hands that we call time
And theres a place of mine
Where my dreams are more defined

No more reasons why
I won't ask you
It's like I'm fighting myself
In my own sick mind
Just a look at the sky
and a thoughtful stream of hope behind these eye

Chorus 1:
Couldn't wait to get back Home
to play that rock and roll
Couldn't wait to be alone
To play it like I know
Couldn't wait to get back Home

Verse 2:
There's an invisible line
Through the steps that we walk in time
And there's a thought in my mind
That says we won't realign

Got a reason why
Can I tell you?
It's like I'm fighting myself
In my own demise
Just a look at the sky
and a thoughtful stream of hope behind these eyes

Chorus 2:
Couldn't wait to get back Home
To play that rock and roll
Couldn't wait to be alone
To play it like I know

Couldn't wait to get back Home
To play that rock and roll
Couldn't wait to be alone

Chorus 3:
Couldn't wait to get back Home
To play that rock and roll
Couldn't wait to be alone
To play it like I know
Couldn't wait to get back Home
To play that rock and roll
Couldn't wait to be alone
