Big Star

Stew Kirkwood

I saw a big star running from me
A world from a record on my bed
Turn the tables on me
What would happen if I fell?
To the tune of a dreamer
To the tune of my heart
A big star running from me
I saw a world out sunnin' on my head
Turn the tables on me now
I would fall from heaven and ring your bell
Baby catch me
In the middle of a lie
The boys are out tonight
Yeah, the boys are out tonight
The big shots singin' from me
I saw a world out sunnin' on my head
Pity my heart signals

Center of a storm inside my head
Center of my, center of my heart
Center of my, out of time, simple mind
From the moon out my window
Wink and a blink and a nod
Had a wish on a start but now it's Now it's falling, now it's falling, falling
The boys are out tonight
Yeah, the boys are out tonight
Big skies above me
Signal my horoscope, it said
Never heed a caution, never fight a lover
Never cross a street alone in the middle
The middle of a signal red, middle of a drinker's heart
Middle of a big parade, a signal in my horoscope
