Saved By Grace

Jadon Lavik

Somewhere deep inside my heart and mind
Your spirit moves and brings Your words to life
Revealing all my sins, my careless ways
Reminding me, my debt to You has been paid
It has been paidAnd Ive been saved by grace
And Ive been saved by love
There is nothing more You could have done
You sent Your son
And Ive been saved by graceSearching for the words to thank my king
Humbled by my silent offering
Tears of joy well from the depths of my soul
There is no greater gift I know , Ill ever know
Ever knowAnd Ive been saved by grace
And Ive been saved by love
There is nothing more You could have done
You sent Your son
And Ive been saved by grace, saved by graceIve been saved by grace
Ive been saved by love
There is nothing more You could have done
You sent Your sonIve been saved by grace
Ive been saved by love
There is nothing more You could have done
You sent Your son, You sent Your sonIve been saved by grace
Ive been saved by love
There is nothing more You could have done
You sent Your son
