Hello It's Me Again

Hearios

Hello (x 2)
hello, hello, hello, hello, hello, hello.
Hello it's me again,
So nice to see you here my friend,
It's been a long time,
I'll bury this fine,

What are you doin nowadays,
Seems like the years have slipped away,
And life is going so fast,

I think of you from time to time,
One memory stays on my mind.
Remember the day,
We promised to stay in love, with one another,
You said we would never leave each other.

I'm sorry i didnt mean to go, that far but feelings are still so,
deep inside,
and i cant hide,

i guess you've got a whole new life some lucky guy made you his wife, I wish you the best,
but let me guess?

Two kids and a white picket fence well i guess that it all makes sense That's why I left this town in the first place
But i always remember your face

Hello,
How you doing?
nice to see you,
hope your fine,
but its alright now,
and its alright now,
its alright now,

its alright now,
its alright now,

Well I, I hope that you're really happy
I hope that you're really happy
i hope that you're really happy
I hope that you're happy

Living with you're two kids and your white picket fence well i guess it'll never make sense You always told me you dreamed of leaving this place now what i have is a memory of your face

hello it's me again
