Alone

Otan Vargas

Alone deep in the dark
I hide all my sorrows from you
I tried to cover this pain
That flows through my veins all this timeI'm slowly decaying
My head is fading
I feel like I'm bleeding
I'm down and forsakenI bear all this hate
My heart is begging to fade
But I stayed kept looking and found that Nobody stands by my sideI'm slowly decaying
My head is fading
I feel like I'm bleeding
I'm down and forsakenThe pressure I kept inside
I'm totally drowning I cannot take this anymore
These tension hate and anger
Vanquish my life all aloneI'll break all of your rules
I have to be free from your chains
But I'm lost nowhere to go
No one to blame but my ownI'm slowly decaying
My head is fading
I feel like I'm bleeding
I'm down and forsakenThe pressure I kept inside
I'm totally drowning I cannot take this anymore
These tension hate and anger
Vanquish my life all aloneNothing has changed
Everything remains the same
I'm left here and bounded
By this hatred foreverThe pressure I kept inside
I'm totally drowning I cannot take this anymore
These tension hate and anger
Vanquish my life all aloneIt's late I know its the end
But I'm back from where I begun
