Submission

Delphic

Always a new temptation, I am desire
Always in moderation, if it's a hunger from the heart
Trying to keep it all out of sight and mind
Out of sight and mind, trying to work a reason
Why, I don't recognize myselfThe less you expect from me, the less you get Every test you give me the more I can remedy myself
I can't keep giving into mistakes I've made
The mistakes I've made
I can't keep living life left behind, I don't recognize myselfAlways a new temptation and no one hears me now
Always in moderation, if it's a hunger from the heart
Trying to keep it all out of sight and mind
Out of sight and mind, trying to work a reason
Why, I don't recognize myselfI don't recognize myself
Are you now, are you now, are you now?
