My First

Guerilla Black

You were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies
You always was trueYou were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies
You always was trueI knew it, ever since I started seein' ya
A few body scars, a few misdemeanors
You was down when nobody else was down
Helped me stacked the pounds, kept the gat in ya blouseI admit I used to fuck around a little bit
But I knew that you would always be my chick
You be my shit talk, and next she be in black and blue
It was true I always had to have youI can still smell the curry shrimp and rice
You're the only one I ever trusted with my life, shit
I'd like to break up, to make-up, to make love
Them was some of the best times that we ever wasYou were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies
You always was trueYou were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies
You always was trueI remember them bitches, they tried to hit your sister
Both look at you and got their ass shook up
You was crazy, I was crazier for being with you
Everybody said I shouldn't, I didn't listenStealing me outfits for birthdays and holidays
Snatchin' shit up with your purse, up at Robinson-Mays
Cleanin' the shells at Victoria Secret
Going diamond lovely, and sell it on weekendsYou used to say, never give the dick away
And if I did me and that bitch just disappear away
Brown Traps I love you like a brother
Every time when she tired she reminds me of herMy mother, my brother, I love 'em to the death
No matter what they say, I wouldn't love you any less
Uhh, uhh, uhh, uhh, no matter what they say
I wouldn't love you any lessYou were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies
You always was trueYou were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies

You always was trueA hoe at 18, the 7-18
A day Mr. Felicish Orlean rest in peace
Part of my heart's gold
It was me and you against the world baby, but we helped our ownSome times they went wrong some times they went right
It was the petty shit the reason we fuss and fight
We was closer, than the coast of Nosetrub
Everybody thought they didn't know usI knew that you was be having my baby
I was scared he be broke, he grow up the same way
If it was up to me you wouldn't have to work for shit
We can live great on the states and live mad rich
I guess God need the soldiers in heaven
Soldier you was and soldier forever, and everYou were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies
You always was trueYou were my first, my last, and my only
Ever since you left I've been lonely
I can't find no love in my homies
You always was trueUh, uh come on baby, rest in peace, boo
You know I'm out here, I'm doin' the stage you know
You still with me, you know through this whole journey
You know what I'm sayin'
Remember when we used to have all the fights
