Anchor

Roman Holiday

I wish I were a liar
I'd lie myself to sleep
I'd tell my mind I'm alright
That freedom's in my feet
As soon as I can walk again
I'll surely hit the streets

I tried to pick my feet up
I tried to get around
But my love's like a good anchor
Don't come up once it's gone down
And I sunk it long ago
Deep in an unforgiving sea

Don't look me in the eyes
And tell me I don't need you
And tell me I'm alright

I wish I were a healer
I'd heal this heavy heart
That you attempted to take care of
But you broke it from the start
Now everywhere I go
I go everywhere alone

Don't look me in the eyes
And tell me I don't need you
And tell me I'm alright
