Suddenly

The Madden Brothers

Hearts don't break alone
I know
I've seen it on TV
Now that your gone
I wanna know
Where I fit in the story
This house of cards came tumbling down
Just scattered hearts and broken pieces
No hand to hold, no consolations
Suddenly
Second chances
New romances
Conversations
Good vibrations
Stolen glances
Strangers dancing
Feels good knowing
Life keeps going
Suddenly
You used to say
That you loved the way I am
I hate that I've changed
And I'm sorry that I ran
This house of cards came tumbling down
Just scattered hearts and broken pieces
No hand to hold, no consolations
Suddenly
Second chances
New romances
Conversations
Good vibrations
Stolen glances
Strangers dancing
Feels good knowing
Life keeps going
Suddenly
Look at the colours around you changing
Just hear the music
It's always playing

But when you think that it's over baby
Somebody new comes along to save you
Cause loving you means only changing
But when you think that you're going crazy
Well that's the moment you know it baby
This house of cards came tumbling down
Just scattered hearts and broken pieces
No hand to hold, no consolations
Suddenly
Second chances
New romances
Good vibrations
Stolen glances
Strangers dancing
Feels good knowing
Life keeps going
Suddenly
Suddenly
