Maggie

Julie Miller

She smiles like the stars and her hair is raven
She's a beautiful angel sent from heaven
She shines like a light she fractures the night
And this barroom's alrightMaggie holds her mystery deep inside her heart
She'll keep the secret memories and dance in the darkYou can tell her your longings she will love it
If you ask of the past she won't speak of it
She never will show and you never will know
Of the child long agoMaggie holds her mystery deep inside her heart
She'll keep the secret memories and dance in the dark
