

Be

Lenny Kravitz

Lord, what's the matter, am I lost?
This life's a disaster, what is the cause?
Am I a junkie, what is my fate?
Or am I a flunkie who doesn't relate?
Or am I a child, so full of hate? Am I a doctor or even a priest?
Or am I a rapist who needs a release
A psychotic prancer, Times Square dancer?
The mind can see as long as you'll be
For real with yourself And you'll forever be, be be, be be
You'll forever be, be, be be
You'll forever be, you'll forever be
When you're real with yourself, you'll forever be Lord, what's the matter, am I insane?
This life's an illusion, that's all it remains
Are you listening, are you boss?
Am I gonna make it up top on that cross?
Believe in Your name
