Please

Kim Lukas

Please stay the night 'cause you know it's right
It feels so good when you hold me tight
Please stay the night 'cause you know it's right
Please hold me tightWhen, you walk through the door, that look in your eye
Tells me it's true you've come back for more
I'm reading your mind, i know what you're thinkingNow, I need you to know, there's nothing to lose
Don't be afraid, let your feelings show
Tonight is the night, for your kiss i'm burningPlease stay the night
Please stay the night
Please stay
Please stay
Please stay the nightLove, can sometimes be blind, but when I'm with you
I see what I want, I like what i find
If you stay the night, you'll never be lonelyIf, you give me they key, I'll open your heart
Forget all your fears, put your trust in me
You'll never lose faith, this truth is foreverPlease stay the night
Please stay the night
Please stay
Please stay
Please stay the night
