Beggar

Hundredth

It didn't mend
Leave it to me
And you
Because you didn't know what else to doYou were begging for attention
The loudest in the roomYou confused my silence
My solitude for weakness
But I can see right through
You were starving for acceptance inside
And when you cracked, Your [?] nothing about Ignorance displayed like a trophy you're proud of You stagger around [?] in your mouth
Spit them out
You were begging for attention
The loudest in the roomYou confused my silence
My solitude for weakness
But I can see right through
You were starving for acceptance inside
And when you cracked, And I'll see through[?] calloused
But I can see right through
You cracked and now you're at the bottom
[?] in the mouth
You're at the bottom
Too deep to spit them out
You're at the bottom
Trying to make your way back
Then your desperation is there for me x2
You confused my silence
My solitude for weakness
But I can see right through
You were starving for acceptance inside
And when you cracked,
