Got Away

Shrub

i remember taking drives, up near the seaside,
said you wanna be my bride, said i made u laugh, liked it when i did it like that,
when i said i love you, you always said it back, no AC, yep, we only had a fan, it so damn hot, yet, we didn't give a damn, i remember laying blankets on the sand, i remember making out in the back of the van,i never said "i'm sorry".
i really cannot say, that you had any blame,
'cause i was in the wrong,
and you were in the right,i guess that's why.... you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the onei never thought i'd be here,
i never thought it'd end,
the day you said goodbye,
i tried to pretend,like you ain't mean nothing, but i was just fronting..... i guess that's why....
you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the one that got away,i remember waving bye, hoping you would't cry,
'cause i told so many lies, twenty years have passed, and i know,
you're never coming back, last time i called,
you wouldn't hit me back,now i see, yep, i never should have ran, i should have told the truth, yep, i should have been a man, i'm always building castles in the sand, i never planned for the tide, now it's high, and i'm damned.i never said "i'm sorry".

i really cannot say, that you had any blame,
'cause i was in the wrong,
and you were in the right,i guess that's why....
you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the onei never thought i'd be here,
the day you said goodbye,
i tried to pretend,like you ain't mean nothing,
but i was just fronting.....
you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the one that got away,
away, away,
you're the one that got away,
