Bombs Away

Kyle Andrews

Run away
There's a bomb in the back of my head
And if you stay
There's a chance you'll end up cleaning up the messBefore my visions
Turn up fatal
Chance the station
To something stableTonight
I'm going straight for your throat
Oh, you don't even know
Tonight
I'm going straight, straight for the throat
Oh, you don't even know
What's coming, what's coming nextFall through the ceiling
Fall to the floor
Forgive the feeling
Just give me more (time)
Run away, there's a bomb in the back of my headYou know I love you
'Cause I'm still breathing
Forget the moments as they comeTonight
I'm going straight for your throat
Oh, you don't even know
Tonight
I'm going straight, straight for the throat
Oh, you don't even know
What's coming, what's coming next
