Before I Let You Go

Bardot

Waking up each day to a warm embrace
To the smell of sweet perfume
Every man needs his woman
Seems I ain't good enough for you
(The sweet surrender of a broken heart)
So fragile and lost
Like a child in the dark
(Oh my sweet darling can't you hear me cry)
A kiss in the sky before we say goodbye
CHORUS
Before I let you go return the key to my heart
So I can start over
Before I let you go return the key to my heart
So I can start over
If only we could look into our past life
And see how our love first bloomed
I should have cherished every moment

Cause now the love we have is through
(The sweet surrender of a broken heart)
So fragile and lost
Like a child in the dark
(Oh my sweet darling can't you hear me cry)
A kiss in the sky before we say goodbye
CHORUS
Before I let you go.....
I gave so much to you
Gave you my all
I was there through the times
That you needed me
But I'm no longer your girl
You've got the key to my world
Yes you do
CHORUS X 2
Before I let you go.....
