Someone I Know

Margo Guryan

I was thinking
Of leaving
There was no one around here
I wanted to know

Then I saw someone
Who Happened
To remind me of
Being in the womb a long time ago

I know
And you know
That we never met before tonight
Why, then, should I feel so right
About being in your arms?

You've been good to me now
And I don't want to go
Your lips are warm and familiar
And you feel like someone I know
