Inam Naudemina

Count Raven

You have let me down one time too much and inside I feel my patience burst just because You're insecure and weak doesn't mean I'll turn the other cheek Through other's eyes it's yourself You have to see what You tell me isn't my reality Never again I'll let you know no, I will never my feelings show time and time again You're asking me to try on broken promises I won't rely You ask that I'm a loser, but what is there to win ?
The highest price is heaven, not spending life in sin You're scared of Your own feelings, afraid of Your own lust Your life You take for granted, in lies You put Your trust
