Everything Is Talking

The Long Winters

Our new set can talk and think
I'm upset it was so hard to train
Our old set was quite a bore
We yelled at it
But it didn't hear
My new friends have messages
They reach me wherever I am now

Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything

Nameless friends all know my name
They know me
They help me
Our new set is a good set
It's a big set
A really big set

Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything

I'll miss the way she says
I'll miss the coughs
I'll miss the appointments
I'll miss the shows
I'll miss the eyes low
I'll miss the change
I'll miss the change

My bank is hip hop jazz
They're too street
I don't get it
I won't eat a machine
But what if it asks me
What if it says my name

Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything
Everything is talking everything
