Fire In the Sky

The Horrorist

She's a faker. And I hope that she dies.
She's so screwed up. Empty inside.
She's insane. You can see it in her eyes.
She believes in all of her lies.
She's a mental patient trying to fool the world.I am the fire in the sky. I am the doom. I am the doom.
I have the keys to the future. I am the doom. I am the doom.I kissed her on her electric mouth.
And I was shocked.
I fell in love with the witch."I told you I'd call you back. Why don't you listen to me?
If I say I'm gonna call you back, I'm gonna call you back! Stop bothering me!"I am the fire in the sky. I am the doom. I am the doom.
I have the keys to the future. I am the doom. I am the doom.She's so crazy! I can't believe it's true.
I thought she was so crazy. And now I know it's true.She pulled the wool over my eyes.
I guess i'm just desperate in disguise.
I guess I'm just desperate final.
But I'd rather live in that world.
I'd rather live under her wing.
As least there it all means something.I am the fire in the sky. I am the doom. I am the doom.
I have the keys to the future. I am the doom. I am the doom.She's so crazy! I can't believe it's true.I am the fire in the sky. I am the doom. I am the doom.
I have the keys to the future. I am the doom. I am the doom.She's so crazy! I can't believe it's true.I am the fire in the sky. I am the doom. I am the doom.
I have the keys to the future. I am the doom. I am the doom.
