Flo

Isaac Red Holt Unlimited

Your friends keep tellin' me
I bear a strikin' resemblance to
Someone you used to know
But baby it's me
So why the hell you keep on callin' me?
(Flo)
And I would hope
That you would have the decency to
Let me go, in case of an emergencyBut you keep reassurin' me
Tellin' me to just quit trippin' on it
And maybe it's me
I guess that I should probably get a grip on it
(But)
It's hard to do
Every time I see that tattoo
Over your heart
It ain't right I can't even look at youAnd why you doin' what you're doin'?
You should be doin' what you want
Who the fuck you think you're foolin'?
She's the one, the one you wantFlorence if you hear this won't you
Come and take your girlfriend back
She's been callin' out your name
Every time we're in a sack
She's been a mess since she been apart
So Flo if you had half the heartFlorence can you hear me?
Can you hear me Flo?
Florence can you hear me?
Can you hear me Flo?We been goin' for awhile
But lately she's been somewhere else
She don't even smile
And I think it's a cry for (Help)
And I would pray
That you would have the common courtesy
To take her away
It ain't right, she don't belong to meWhy you doin' what you're doin'?
You should be doin' who you want
You're the only one you're foolin'
She's the one, the one you wantFlorence if you hear this won't you

Come and pick your girlfriend out
She's been talkin' in her sleep
And I think that I've had enough
She's been a wreck since she been away
So Flo if you have somethin' to sayFlorence can you hear me?
Can you hear me Flo?
Florence can you hear me?
Can you hear me Flo?Florence can you hear me?
Can you hear me Flo?
Florence can you hear me?
Can you hear me?
