Walkin' Talkin' Woman

Radney Foster

She's a walkin' talkin' real live good lovin' woman.
She'll heal the hurt you left in me.
She's a livin' breathin' heart-stoppin' man pleasin' woman... To help me lose your memory. You say that I'll come running back to you someday. believe me I don't need the aggravation babe. Heartaches and pain have never really been my style. So if your wating you'll be wating quite a while.
(Chorus) She's a walkin' talkin' real live good lovin' woman.
She'll heal the hurt you left in me.
She's a livin' breathin' heart-stoppin' man pleasin' woman. To help me lose your memory.There was a time I thought our love would never die. Back befor my teardrops fell around your lies.
I realize now that i've found someone true.
That love was never really meant for me and you.
(Chorus) She's a walkin' talkin' real live good lovin' woman.
She'll heal the hurt you left in me.
She's a livin' breathin' heart-stoppin' man pleasin' woman. To help me lose your memory.
Yeah she's a woman to help me lose your memory..
