Just Decide

I Fight Dragons

Its a nice day for a swim
Tie the weights around my feet and stumble in
And dare the tide to turn
I've been waiting here so long
Hoping the answers would just somehow come along
It takes time to learn but I've got no more time to burn
My arms feel stronger now than ever before
My eyes see far beyond the tide
The only sure way to lose is being afraid to choose
So just decide, just decide
It started somewhere in my chest
I rest for daily work and work for daily rest
But not anymore, I left that with my clothes back on the shore
My arms feel stronger now than ever before

My eyes see far beyond the tide
The only sure way to lose is being afraid to choose
So just decide, just decide
Get over, get over before they drag you under (3x)
Get over, get over go on and take one step before that step is taken for you
Stronger now than ever before
My eyes see far beyond the tide
The only sure way to lose is being afraid to choose
So just decide
My arms feel stronger now than ever before
My eyes see far beyond the tide
The only sure way to lose is being afraid to choose
So just decide, just decide
Its a nice day for a swim...
