Self-Control

Majesty Of Revival

Verse
Nothing cant break you,
Nothing cant bend you,
You just like a steel,
You control everything.
You dont need to say:
Are you right or wrong.
You like army of soldiers,
who liv in the war.
War - living in the war.Self-Control...Bridge:
You holding all in your hands
Yourself and all the emotions
You leave your cold heart forever
Somewhere deep in the ground.Refrain:
When youre walking through the boulevard
Everybody look you after
Youre like from the magazine's cover
You are cold as ice....
