Disappear

Cavo

Can you tell me where to go, its killing me and no one knows,
Inside with all this mind, we waste the sunlight waiting for the night
They dont wanna break me down; they dont wanna break away from you
Everythings wrong now, everyones gone now,
I cant keep lying to myself
Cuz everythings clear now they disappear now
Cuz they dont wanna stay with youCan you tell me where to go its killing me and no one knows,
Inside with all this mind, you waste the sunlight waiting for the night
They dont wanna break me down; they dont wanna break away from you
Everythings wrong now, everyones gone now,
I cant keep lying to myself
Cuz everythings clear now, they disappear now
Cuz they dont wanna stay,I shouldnt be waiting for this life
Maybe another dream wont die
They cant be the first and be the last to break awayThey dont wanna break me down; they dont wanna break away from you
Everythings wrong now, everyones gone now,
I cant keep lying to myself
Cuz everythings clear now they disappear now
Cuz they dont want to stay with youEverythings wrong now, everyones gone now,
I cant keep lying to myself
Cuz everythings clear, now they disappear now
Cuz they dont want to stay with you.
