Ashes

The Hush Now

Bending bone avoiding arrows
Acting like the day we found you
Holding back as they push forward
Beg and steal but say you borrowed Why did you care if they Dont know why you did what you did
Doesnt matter in the end
When will you understandYou burned so bright
Despite their reactions
Cant get around
The sight of your ashes
We stopped counting long agoHolding on to their tomorrows
Cant connect just cant follow
Played it out but not quite bleeding
Standing, kicking you go screaming
How do you know that we Dont care why you did what you did Doesnt help when you pretend
When will you understandYou burned so bright
Despite their reactions
Cant get around
The sight of your ashesCertified
In modern day fashions
Gave you away
In spite of the acting
We stopped counting
long agoYou burned so bright
Despite their advances
Cant get around
The sight of your ashesCertified
In modern day fashions
Sent you away
A chorus of laughterWe stopped counting dont you know
We stopped counting
dont you know
We stopped counting
dont you know
