Hit the mission abort button
Coitus interruptus
Tried to leave the world free spinning
Someone surely stopped usWait a day
Second engine is OK
Here we go again
One more delay
Couldn't think what to say
This is no test
We've been toldThe sky's our terminal
There's a message come through
From my other home
It's my daughter's birthday
If I feel over the moon
About that special new
I'd end up in a worse wayWait a day
Second engine is OK
Here we go again
One more delay
Couldn't think what to say
This is no test
We've been toldThe sky's our terminal X2Hit the mission abort button
Coitus interruptus
Tried to leave the world free spinning
Someone surely stopped us
Wait a day
Second engine is OK
Here we go again
One more delay
Couldn't think what to say
This is no test
We've been toldThe sky's our terminal X4 ...
