This Heart

Reckless Sleepers

Hey!

My phone book is sitting in the fire
I laugh while the flames keep drifting higher, oh yeah Yesterday will never be what I want
But I can't change that Instead in front of me
my past explodes
I'll rise with the smoke

This heart
is gonna be in love again
This heart
is gonna be in love again

Last time is a lesson
I will save I'm not gonna be that kind of slave, oh no Everyone's forgiven now
I can't blame them
I can't use that The thought of reaching out and a soul reacts
It grabs me back

This heart
is gonna be in love again
This heart
is gonna be in love again
This heart
is gonna be in love again
This heart
is gonna be in love again

And there's no trick to it it's just a clap of the hands

This heart
is gonna be in love again Yeah, this heart
is gonna be in love again
