Let Me Bleed

Prime STH

Been here before, scratchin' on your door
Feelin' empty, I'm always back for more
I'm hypnotized and paralysed
My aching love for you, can't be deniedBut you just let me bleed
I'm in need of someone, why can't you see?
I'm all used up, waiting for the call
In a Jesus Christ pose nailed to the wallI'm in a mess and I'm fallin' down
And this is where the angels should come aroundBut you just let me bleed
I'm in need of someone, why can't you see?
That you're the only one, that makes things real
I'm in need of something to make me feel
Like I'm the only oneMy precious love, what have I done?
You left me here all alone
And I'll be here forever, waitin' for you
You're the only one for meBut you just let me bleed
I'm in need of someone, why can't you see?
That you're the only one, that makes things real
I'm in need of something to make me feel
Like I'm the only oneMy sugar, my sugar, my sweet sugar
I'm coming back for more, I'm coming back for more
I'm coming back for more, I'll never let you go
