Warm

Kinnie Starr

You ask me would I give you a chance
Well, yes, here is my offering
Here is my mind, here is my body
Here is my patience and and my softening
Here is my softeningAnd I am warm
I'm warm for youAnd we are alive in this moment
That is a small lifetime left to be us
And unbound our ribbons have begun
To circle and secure, to circle and secure
To circle and secure our trustSwemptic lover
Hectic is the path in coming days
Gentler if we cross the bridge
With heart always in our gazeAnd I'm warm for you
I'm warm for you
I'm warm for you
I'm warm for youStay open this through
We'll straighten my bent wings
To embrace the ways that are you
To embrace the ways that are you
To embrace the ways that are you
To embrace the ways that are you'Cause I'm warm for you
I'm warm for you
