Roger Nusic

is your life as dark as mine will you carry on further down the line
it's all gone
do you bleed like me
do you bleed at all
how this turned out to be one cold final call shells of steel run right over me the company of fools
in the end you'll walk right over me one sad broken tool is your screen as blank as mine do the circuits scream will your nightmares keep you safe in the dome of dreams clawing at the glass
the wires around your heart how the hours come to pass when you tear them apart
