You Deserve

Natalie Grant

How can I come bringing no more than this ?
You are the Lord you're wrapped in holyness
But here I am before you now, here I amYou deserve every mountain falling
You deserve every ocean reaching
You deserve all creation crying out your worth
You deserve all of heaven singing
You deserve every nation rising
I have heard that what You want most is my loveHow can I be the one your heart aches for?
Still can't believe you say that I am Yours
So here I am before you now, Here I amYou deserve every mountain falling
You deserve every ocean reaching
You deserve all creation crying out your worth
You deserve all of heaven singing
You deserve every nation rising
I have heard that what You want most is my loveMy love, my love, What You want most is my love
My love, my love, Lord, I offer You my love
My love, My love, yeah a yeah. . . . . .You deserve every mountain falling
You deserve every ocean reaching
You deserve all creation crying out your worth
You deserve all of heaven singing
You deserve every nation rising
I have heard that what You want most is my love
