Back to Me

Bebo Norman

Oh my love, don't you cry
I won't leave you alone tonight
So put your hand back into mine
And I will hold you until the end of time, yeahI hung my hope on your return
Now all that sorrow so soon will burn
So tend my heart with tender hands
And see your sunshine's pouring inAnd all the world is at my feet, yeah
'Cause you came sailing back to me, yeahSo look around you and look outside
A great big love and a big blue sky
And all the spring, and all this light
And all these treetops, well, they're all mine'Cause all the world is at my feet, yeah
'Cause you came sailing back to me, yeahAll the world is at my feet
'Cause you came sailing back to me, yeahMy love, Lord, say yeah
We are sailing
And we are sailing on
So come on sailing, yeah
We are sailing onMy love, oh
My love, oh
My love, yeah
My love, yeah, my loveSay you're mine
Say you're mine
Say you're mine
