You Really Got Me

No Mercy

You really got me
You're the one in my fantasy
So why do I even wonder
When all I feel is thunderYou really got me
You really got meYou really got me, you're all I see
No other girl can make my heart stand still
I wonder, maybe you feel the same way tooI'm in a dream, why does it seem Like every time I take a chance I fall like under
Under a spell made for a foolIt's like a curtain on a window
It's like a a painting on a wall
Without the one the other is lonely
When I'm alone I hear you callYou really got me
You're the one in my fantasy
So why do I even wonder
When all I feel is thunderYou really got me
You're the one in my fantasy
The one that I wanna pray
Be sure that here you stayYou really got me
You really got meYou really got me, how can this be
I can't deny a love that feels so strong
It's burning, burning the deepest part of meIt's like a curtain on a window
It's like a a painting on a wall
Without the one the other is lonely
When I'm alone I hear you callYou really got me
You're the one in my fantasy
So why do I even wonder
When all I feel is thunderYou really got me
You're the one in my fantasy
The one that I wanna pray
Be sure that here you stayYou really got me
You really got meYou really got me, you really got me
It's not a dream, it's reality
You really got me, you really got me
Finish what you've started 'cause you really got meYou really got me, you really got me
It's not a dream, it's reality
You really got me, you really got me
Finish what you've started 'cause you really got meYou really got me, you really got me
It's not a dream, it's reality
You really got me, you really got me

Finish what you've started 'cause you really got me
