Man With No Country

Jim Capaldi

Man with no country
Jim CapaldiMan with no country
Just a guitar and a love that he sung (he only wants to see)Man with no country walking along down long dusty roads
(he wants to stay ahead of everything)He's got to see new horizons each day
He'll never stayMan with no country
Looks up and sees birds in the sky
(he wants to be so free to fly high)Man with no country Never looks back to that place that he's coming from (something inside him always moving on)Though he'll remember the moments of making new friends each day
Still he won't stayMan with no country
Comes into town and looks for a bar (somwehere that he can play his acoustic guitar)The girl at a moment sees him and says "I'd like the way that you touch the strings come play with me I'll give you everything"But he's such in other things that will set him so free (that's the way he knows it's got to be)
And heaven is a long long way from where he stands
He's a very lonely manBut he's such in other things that will set him so free (that's the way he knows it's got to be)
It's gotta be
And heaven is a long long way from where he stands
He's a very lonely manOhhhhhh
Man with no country
Yeah
Man with no country
Ohhhhhh
Man with no country
Ohhhhhh
Man with no country
Uhhhhhh Yeh Yeh Yeh
Man with no countryLalalalala
Lalalalala
Lalalalala
Lalalalala
Uhhhh
