Hurt Me Bad In a Real Good Way

Patty Loveless

Would've never found you
He had wanted to stay
Oh, he hurt me bad
In a real good wayWell he opened my eyes
To a world beyond
That impossible dream
I was livin' onAnd I thank my lucky stars each night
When you're in my arms and your holding me tight
I realize what it means
To have your true loveI would've never found you
He had wanted to stay
Oh, he hurt me bad
In a real good wayAnd I thank my lucky stars each night
When you're in my arms and your holding me tight
I realize what it means
To have your true loveWhen I look back on my life before
How my heart got shattered with a slammin' door
I see how it all had to be
For the two of usOh, the river of tears
That flow from my eyes
Was only moving me on
To this paradiseI would've never found you
He had wanted to stay
Oh, he hurt me bad
In a real good way
Oh, he hurt me bad
In a real good way
