Twisted

Stuck Mojo

Who's ego trippin' suckers need to start to skippin' removethe fork from my anus because I ain't done.One of a kind never to be figured out, but oh naw,naw don't let me run my mouth about the wrong thing.Bonz shut the fuck up but I don't think socheck out my ill flow the shortcomings of my life won'tlet me go so I have to maintain or get out of control!
Just a product of my environment experiment still in development so solution.Tell me what you doing?
Poison mind control so I have to let it go.Twisted ~ I am twisted.
TwistedTwisted ~ I am so twisted!!Look in the mirror.
What do I see?An angry motherfucker looking back at me.
The pressure of the world got my mind on rewind.Man I reminisce when things were divine.You better hope someone you trust got your back.
But everything is fucked up and ass-backwards plus it's wack.
You're already hit slobbering red spit in the worldof rock-n-roll shit gets out of control.Just a product of my environment experiment still in development so solution.Tell me what you doing?Poison mind control so I have to let it go.Twisted ~ I am twisted.
TwistedTwisted ~ I am so twisted!!
