Mercy Man

PFR

I couldn't find myself today, I got lost in reflection
Retracing steps all along the way back to days with no direction
I wasn't wishing for those times to come again
No it was more of a reminder of where and what and how I'd beenLiving my life without connection to the One who'd always seen within
Who knew my heart and its intentions
He said that all could be forgiven if I could trust in One Who'd risen
And that's when His mercy came to meI was saved by the Mercy Man
He touched my heart, He helped me understand
That there was shelter and unfailing love
If I'd just take the hand, hand of the Mercy ManAll these expectations that I'd placed upon myself
How I would conquer the giants with the help of no one else
But I was wrong, I was mistaken what I thought was the truth
Was not the truth at all and that's when I heard Mercy callI was saved by the Mercy Man
He touched my heart, He helped me understand
That there was shelter and unfailing love
If I'd just take the hand, hand of the mercy ManI was saved by the Mercy Man
He touched my heart, He helped me understand
That there was shelter and unfailing love
If I'd just take the hand, hand of the Mercy ManBut I was wrong, I was mistaken
What I thought was the truth was not the truth at allI was saved by the Mercy Man
He touched my heart, He helped me understand
That there was shelter and unfailing love
If I'd just take the hand, hand of the Mercy ManI was saved by the Mercy Man
He touched my heart, He helped me understand
That there was shelter and unfailing love
If I'd just take the hand, hand of the Mercy ManHe took my hand, holds my heart
