Shaking Through

R.E.M.

Could it be that one small voice, doesn't count in the world?
Yellow like a Geisha doll, denial all the way
Could this by three be turned? Honor marches on
Yellow like a Geisha doll, denial all the way
Shaking through, opportune
Shaking through, opportune
Are we grown way too far? Taking after rain
Yellow like a Geisha doll, denial all the way
Shaking through, opportune
Shaking through, opportune
In my life, is that a steal? Children of today on parade
Yellow like a Geisha doll, denial all the way
Shaking through, opportune
Shaking through, opportune
Shaking through, opportune
Shaking through, opportune
