All The Money In The World

Bellefire

[Kelly:]What can I do, what can I say to tell you
Everything I'm feeling
I never knew, love that was true
Until your heart showed me the meaning
[Ciara:]It's more than a miracle
Brighter than silver, more precious than gold
I want the whole world to know
And now that I found it, I won't let it go
[All:]All the money in the world
Couldn't buy this girl
No fancy cars, no diamonds or pearls
I've got everything I need
Right here with me
A heart to trust, and a reason to believe
No I wouldn't trade your love
For all the money in the world
[Tara:]Out on my own, searching alone
Until the day I looked in your eyes
Took me apart, opened my heart
So many things you made me realise
[Ciara:]Nothing else matters now
I don't hear the madness
I don't feel the pain
Your heart showed me how
That love can move mountains
Again and again
[All:]All the money in the world
Couldn't buy this girl
No fancy cars, no diamonds or pearls
I've got everything I need

Right here with me
A heart to trust, and a reason to believe
No I wouldn't trade your love
For all the money in the world
[Ciara:]Nothing else matters now
I don't hear the madness
I don't feel the pain
Your heart showed me how

That love can move mountains
Again and again
[All:]All the money in the world
Couldn't buy this girl
No fancy cars, no diamonds or pearls
I've got everything I need
Right here with me
A heart to trust, and a reason to believe
No I wouldn't trade your love
For all the money in the world
[Tara:]It's brighter than silver
More precious than gold
Something you feel in your heart and soul
It's more than a miracle
More than a dream
Taken me places that I've never seen
[All:]All the money in the world
Couldn't buy this girl
No fancy cars, no diamonds or pearls
I've got everything I need
Right here with me
A heart to trust, and a reason to believe
No I wouldn't trade your love
For all the money in the world
