Reconcile

ANFO

We've both been mistreated, no wish to repeat this no
But you're sorry, you wonder
If ever I'll show you grace again, yeahMy vision is tunneled, my motives, oh so rageful
The mirror I'm readin'
Says, "Forgive and then forgive again"Though there's a wrong
A grudge will tear us down
We wait too long, the air turns staleSo will we reconcile?
It's all we're needin' reconcile
It's all we're needin' to mend these broken smilesOh miserable me, miserable you
The walls erected between us
You keep your side, I'll not intrudeSo we'll get used to this denial
And turn our heads a while
And wait too long, the air turns staleWill we reconcile?
It's all we're needin' reconcile
It's all we're needin' to mend these broken smiles
These broken smiles
Broken smiles
Broken smilesIt's all we're needin'
We gotta reconcile, reconcile
It's all I needin' reconcile
It's all I needin' reconcile
It's all I needin' reconcile
It's all I needin'
It's all I needin'
It's all I needin'
It's all I needin'
