All Day

Young Ejecta

don't be silly, old boy that's what i'm here for i'm gonna follow you anyplace i'm like a nightingale i am from deep space i could just fly away but i stayedthe sun shines all night over somebody else, somewhere covered by the light, and the dark and the black, and the white oh! who cares!the sun shines at night all over someone else someplace but it shined on us all day every little noise i make goes unseen im having the hardest time learning to walk so come to me, i know you can oh! the way you act when you want your lover to be your man
