Living My Life

Daville

I feel a change in the weather around me
I'm seeing differently, nothing's the same
Everyone's asking questions about me
They say I lost my faith and I'm not the sameLord, I feel fine, I haven't lost my mind
My heart's open wide and my eyes on the sky
I'm living my lifeI can't be sure that I wake up tomorrow
But that doesn't matter to me, I love for todayAnd I still know love and I still know pain
My heart's open wide and my eyes on the sky
I'm living my life, oh, I'm living my lifeI handle on my own, wherever I may roam
'Coz I'm not aloneWell, I feel fine, I haven't lost my mind
My heart's open wide and my eye's on the sky
I'm living my lifeI still know love and I still know pain
My heart's open wide and my eyes on the sky
My heart's open wide on the sky
My heart's open wide on the sky
I'm living my life
