Love Is Standing Near

Night Ranger

I know, it's hard
And words can never Tell you the way I feel
I know, it's like
A cold December
With nothing to hide the fear
Know that I just need you so
And I'm strung out on love with no control
And the world retains me far from home
Telephone
No one's home
Expected maybe
Yes, you know inside
When it's time to shed a tear
Know in your heart and believe it
Love is standing near
Yes, you know inside
Only time will see ya clear
Know in your heart and believe it
Love is standing near
I feel just like
A lonely runner
Running the miracle mile
Or a man
Who's accidentally
Setting himself on fire
Why do I need you so?
Am I fooling myself?
I'll never know
And I expect to call you up

Telephone
No one's home
Expected someday
Yes, you know inside
When it's time to shed a tear
Know in your heart and believe it
Love is standing near
Yes, you know inside

Only time will see ya clear
Know in your heart and believe it
Love is standing near
Oh, spin a heart
Never find the answer
Lonely nights
Keep on getting longer
I ain't sayin'
I got all the answers
Love is the hero
And that's all that matters
Oh yes, you know inside
Know in your heart and believe it
Love is standing near
Yes, you know inside
Only time will see ya clear
Know in your heart and believe it
Love is standing near
Oh yes, you know deep inside
Know in your heart and believe it
