Judas Like the Last Time

Lie Captive

My pulse is up,
My heart was racing.
Another man lost to an awkward situation.
Good luck getting up,
Youll have to climb your own way out,
Of your hole.Just keep digging deeper.
You cant climb out on your own.Now I could be mistaken,
But I can see through this.
I could be mistaken,
But Ive been through this.So many days left in the cold,
And my patience is wearing thin.
These bitter nights are getting old
I hate to say, I told you so.Ive dealt the cards,
Laid out the warning.
And Ill criticize,
But youll go on conforming,
To all your old standards,
Play Judas like the last time.
But you should know by nowJust keep digging deeper.
You cant climb out on your own.
Now I could be mistaken,
But I can see through this.
I could be mistaken,
But Im better than this.
