I Shall Be Released

Bob Dylan

They say everything can be replaced
They say every distance is not near
So I remember every face
Of every man who put me hereI see my light come shining
From the west unto the east
Any day now, any day now
I shall be releasedThey say every man needs protection
They say that every man must fall
Yet I swear I see my reflection
Some where so high above this wallI see my light come shining
From the west unto the east
Any day now, any day now
I shall be releasedYou're youngest handsome man in this lonely crowd
A man who swears he's not to blame
And all day long I hear him shout so loud
Just crying out that he was framedI see my light come shining
From the west unto the east
Any day now, any day now
I shall be released
