Paperbag Writer

Radiohead

Blow into this paper bag
Go home and stop grinning at everyone
Blow into this paper bag
Go home and stop grinning at everyoneIt was nice when it lasted but now it's gone
It was nice when it lasted but now it's goneBlow into this paper bagTake your armor off, you're not under attack
Take your armor off, you're not under attackCome on, come onBlow into this paper bag
Go home, stop grinning at everyone
Blow into this paper bag
Go home, stop grinning at everyoneThat they were honeybees on a blade of grass
Take your armor off, you're not under attack[Incomprehensible]Blow into this paper bagBlow into this paper bag
